

NEW SEISMIC DESIGN: WHY EXISTING APPROACHES TO CONSTRUCTION ARE WRONG FOR SOUTH ASIA

By Javed Sultan

ABSTRACT

The recent earthquake in South Asia has brought about concerns that the current seismic solutions, which have been developed for cash rich, western economies, could not be replicated in an emerging economy such as Pakistan's.

Javed Sultan, AIA is an architect and civil engineer by training and is president of Kinoo, Inc., an Architectural/ Engineering firm based in the USA.

* Address correspondence to Javed Sultan, Kinoo Inc., 675 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, USA. E-Mail: sultanj@kinoo.com